CONSENT ORDER

=====

UPON the parties agreeing to the terms hereof

BY CONSENT IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Permission is granted and the decisions of the Defendant, dated 24 January 2020 and carrying reference number APP/G2815/W/193232099, to allow the Interested Party's appeal under s.78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990, and to make a partial award of costs in favour of the Interested Party, are quashed pursuant to s.288 of the same Act.

2. The appeal is remitted to be determined de novo.
3. The Defendant pay the Claimant's costs in the amount of £8616.66

Dated: This 7th Day of May 2020

PARTICULARS

- A. These proceedings concern an application brought under section 288 of the 1990 Act by the Claimant against (1) the decision of the Defendant to allow the Interested Party's appeal against the decision of the Claimant to refuse planning permission for residential development at land to the west of numbers 7-12 The Willows, Thrapston, NN14 4LY and (2) the decision to make a partial award of costs against the Claimant in respect of that appeal.
- B. The Defendant has carefully considered the Inspector's decision and the Claimant's Statement of Facts and Grounds and Reply, and the evidence served in support. He concedes that he erred in his interpretation of the definition of deliverable within the glossary of the National Planning Policy Framework ("NPPF") as a 'closed list'. It is not. The proper interpretation of the definition is that any site which can be shown to be 'available now, offer a suitable location for development now, and be achievable with a realistic prospect that housing will be delivered on the site within five years' will meet the definition; and that the examples given in categories (a) and (b) are not exhaustive of all the categories of site which are capable of meeting that definition. Whether a site does or does not meet the definition is a matter of planning judgment on the evidence available.
- C. The Defendant therefore considers that it is appropriate for the Court to make an Order quashing the decisions and remitting the appeal to be determined de novo.
- D. The Interested Party agrees that the decisions should be quashed and the appeal remitted to be determined de novo.
